Tune: Slane

- 1 Be thou my vision, O Lord of my heart, be all else but naught to me, save that thou art; be thou my best thought in the day and the night, both waking and sleeping, thy presence my light.
- 2 Be thou my wisdom, be thou my true word, be thou ever with me, and I with thee Lord; be thou my great Father, and I thy true son; be thou in me dwelling, and I with thee one.
- 3 Be thou my breastplate, my sword for the fight; be thou my whole armor, be thou my true might; be thou my soul's shelter, be thou my strong tower: O raise thou me heavenward, great Power of my power.
- 4 Riches I heed not, nor man's empty praise:
be thou mine inheritance now and always; be thou and thou only the first in my heart; O Sovereign of heaven, my treasure thou art.
- 5 High King of heaven, thou heaven's bright sun, O grant me its joys after victory is won; great Heart of my own heart, whatever befall, still be thou my vision, O Ruler of all.

Mary E. Byrne, 1880 - 1931

The Acting Rector greets the people with a welcome.

✕ Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Blessed be God's Kingdom, now and for ever.

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you.

And also with you.

OPENING SENTENCES

Acting Rector

Dear friends in Christ, we come together to meet with God, and to take our part in the building of his Church. We will lift up our hearts in thanks and praise, hear from God's holy word, and pray for this world and ourselves. We have gathered together to celebrate God's goodness to this parish in the appointment of the Reverend Andy Bleach. He has been called by God to exercise a position of great spiritual responsibility as Rector of this congregation.

We shall be praying for him, and praying for the congregation, in this new stage of God's work in the Parish of Cremorne.

Let us pray.

Almighty God,

to whom all hearts are open,
all desires known,
and from whom no secrets are hidden:
cleanse the thoughts of our hearts
by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you,
and worthily magnify your holy name,
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE CONFESSION

Acting Rector

God shows great love for us in that while we were still sinners Christ died for us.

Silence

Let us then confess our sins in penitence and faith.

Merciful God,
our maker and our judge,
we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed,
and in what we have failed to do:
we have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves;
we repent, and are sorry for all our sins.
Father, forgive us. Strengthen us to love and obey you in newness of life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE ABSOLUTION

Bishop

Almighty God, who has promised forgiveness to all who turn to him in faith:

✠ pardon you and set you free from all your sins, strengthen you in all goodness and keep you in eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

THE FIRST READING

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah 58.1-9 a

‘Shout it aloud, do not hold back. Raise your voice like a trumpet. Declare to my people their rebellion and to the descendants of Jacob their sins. ² For day after day they seek me out; they seem eager to know my ways, as if they were a nation that does what is right and has not forsaken the commands of its God. They ask me for just decisions and seem eager for God to come near them. ³ “Why have we fasted,” they say, “and you have not seen it? Why have we humbled ourselves, and you have not noticed?” ‘Yet on the day of your fasting, you do as you please and exploit all your workers. ⁴ Your fasting ends in quarrelling and strife, and in striking each other with wicked fists. You cannot fast as you do today and expect your voice to be heard on high. ⁵ Is this the kind of fast I have chosen, only a day for people to humble themselves? Is it only for bowing one’s head like a reed and for lying in sackcloth and ashes? Is that what you call a fast, a day acceptable to the Lord ? ⁶ ‘Is not this the kind of fasting I have chosen: to loose the chains of injustice and untie the cords of the yoke, to set the oppressed free and break every yoke? ⁷ Is it not to share your food with the hungry and to provide the poor wanderer with shelter – when you see the naked, to clothe them, and not to turn away from your own flesh and blood? ⁸ Then your light will break forth like the dawn, and your healing will quickly appear; then your righteousness will go before you, and the glory of the Lord will be your rear guard. ⁹ Then you will call, and the Lord will answer; you will cry for help, and he will say: here am I. ‘If you do away with the yoke of oppression, with the pointing finger and malicious talk,

Hear the Word of the Lord, thanks be to God.

THE SECOND READING

A reading from the First Letter of Paul to the Corinthians 2.1-13

And so it was with me, brothers and sisters. When I came to you, I did not come with eloquence or human wisdom as I proclaimed to you the testimony about God. ² For I resolved to know nothing while I was with you except Jesus Christ and him crucified. ³ I came to you in weakness with great fear and trembling. ⁴ My message and my preaching were not with wise and persuasive words, but with a demonstration of the Spirit's power, ⁵ so that your faith might not rest on human wisdom, but on God's power. ⁶ We do, however, speak a message of wisdom among the mature, but not the wisdom of this age or of the rulers of this age, who are coming to nothing. ⁷ No, we declare God's wisdom, a mystery that has been hidden and that God destined for our glory before time began. ⁸ None of the rulers of this age understood it, for if they had, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. ⁹ However, as it is written: 'What no eye has seen, what no ear has heard, and what no human mind has conceived' – the things God has prepared for those who love him – ¹⁰ these are the things God has revealed to us by his Spirit. The Spirit searches all things, even the deep things of God. ¹¹ For who knows a person's thoughts except their own spirit within them? In the same way no one knows the thoughts of God except the Spirit of God. ¹² What we have received is not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God, so that we may understand what God has freely given us. ¹³ This is what we speak, not in words taught us by human wisdom but in words taught by the Spirit, explaining spiritual realities with Spirit-taught words.

Hear the Word of the Lord, thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Gospel to be read by Acting Rector

Cantor

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

Let your light shine before others, and give glory to your Father in Heaven

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew 5.13-20

‘You are the salt of the earth. But if the salt loses its saltiness, how can it be made salty again? It is no longer good for anything, except to be thrown out and trampled underfoot. ¹⁴ ‘You are the light of the world. A town built on a hill cannot be hidden. ¹⁵ Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a bowl. Instead they put it on its stand, and it gives light to everyone in the house. ¹⁶ In the same way, let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven. ¹⁷ ‘Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have not come to abolish them but to fulfil them. ¹⁸ For truly I tell you, until heaven and earth disappear, not the smallest letter, not the least stroke of a pen, will by any means disappear from the Law until everything is accomplished. ¹⁹ Therefore anyone who sets aside one of the least of these commands and teaches others accordingly will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever practises and teaches these commands will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. ²⁰ For I tell you that unless your righteousness surpasses that of the Pharisees and the teachers of the law, you will certainly not enter the kingdom of heaven.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

HYMN

Tune: Cruger

Please stand

- 1 Hail to the Lord's anointed, great David's greater Son;
 hail, in the time appointed,
 his reign on earth begun!
 He comes to break oppression,
 to set the captive free,
 and take away transgression,
 and rule in equity.
- 2 He comes with help and mercy
 to those who suffer wrong,
 to raise the poor and needy,
 and bid the weak be strong,
 to give them songs for sighing,
 their darkness turn to light, whose souls condemned and dying were precious in his sight.
- 3 He shall come down like showers
 upon the fruitful earth,
 and love, joy, hope, like flowers,
 spring in his path to birth;
 before him on the mountains shall peace the herald go, and righteousness in fountains from hill to valley flow.
- 4 Kings shall fall down before him,
 and gold and incense bring;
 all nations shall adore him,
 his praise all people sing;
 to him shall prayer unceasing
 and daily vows ascend;
 his kingdom still increasing,
 a kingdom without end.

5 O'er every foe victorious,
he on his throne shall rest,
from age to age more glorious,
all blessing and all-blest.
The tide of time shall never his covenant remove;
his name shall stand for ever,
that name to us is love.

James Montgomery, 1771 - 1854

THE NICENE CREED

Acting Rector

Let us together affirm the faith of the Church:

We believe in one God, the Father,
the almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,

the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one being with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary and became truly human.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;

he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
✠ and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Please sit.

INSTITUTION

The Rector designate stands with The Bishop.

The Bishop:

Brother, at your ordination, you were exhorted in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to remember the dignity of the high office and charge to which you are called: that is to say, to be a messenger, watchman and steward of the Lord; to teach and forewarn, to feed and provide for the Lord's family; to seek for Christ's sheep who are scattered abroad, and for his children who are surrounded by temptation in this world, that they may be saved through Christ for ever.

And now, in order that this present congregation of Christ's people may be assured of these things, and to strengthen your resolve to do them, I will put to you again those questions asked of you at your ordination as presbyter.

Are you convinced that the holy scriptures contain all doctrine required of necessity for eternal salvation through faith in Jesus Christ? And will you instruct the people committed to your care from the scriptures, and teach nothing (as required of necessity to eternal salvation) except what you are convinced may be proved by the scriptures?

Rector designate:

I am convinced, and will do so, by God's grace.

The Bishop:

Will you always faithfully minister the doctrine and sacraments, and the discipline of Christ, as the Lord has commanded, and as this Church has received them, according to the commandments of God? Will you teach the people committed to your charge to keep and observe them diligently?

Rector designate:

I will do so, by the help of the Lord.

The Bishop:

Will you be ready to drive away all false and strange doctrines that are contrary to God's word; and to this end both publicly and privately to warn and encourage all within your care, both the sick and the well, as often as the occasion demands?

Rector designate:

I will, the Lord being my helper.

The Bishop:

Will you be diligent in prayer, and in the reading of the scriptures, undertaking studies that help to a fuller knowledge of them, and turning aside from the pursuit of studies for self-indulgence and worldly gain?

Rector designate:

I will do so, the Lord being my helper.

The Bishop:

Will you strive to live according to the teaching of Christ, so that you and your family may be good examples to the flock of Christ?

Rector designate:

I will, the Lord being my helper.

The Bishop:

Will you maintain and promote, to the best of your ability, quietness, peace and love among all Christian people, especially among those who are committed to your care?

Rector designate:

I will, the Lord being my helper.

The Bishop:

Will you reverently obey your ordinary and other chief ministers set over you in the church, gladly and willingly following their godly counsel?

Rector designate:

I will, the Lord being my helper.

The Bishop:

And are you willing to take up responsibility of the office of Rector of the parish of St. Peter's Cremorne?

Rector designate:

I am willing, through Christ who strengthens me.

The Bishop:

Almighty God, who has given you the will to do all these things, grant you the strength and power to perform them; that he may complete his work which he has begun in you; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Handing the licence to the Minister designate The Bishop says:

Take this licence bearing the seal of the Archbishop which records your appointment to this ministry.

INDUCTION

The church wardens come into the chancel with the Acting Rector and face the Rector designate.

Acting Rector:

Reverend Andy Bleach we are now to remind you from the Bible of your main responsibilities as Minister of this parish. Your Churchwardens will read sentences of Scripture to you and I will urge you to follow each of these words of God.

One church warden presents the Rector designate with a map of the parish while the following is said:

Our Lord Jesus Christ said to his apostles: All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age. (Matthew 28:18-20)

Acting Rector:

Be faithful in evangelising this parish and the world beyond.

One church warden takes the Prayer Book from the Minister's prayer desk and brings it to the Rector designate and holds it while the following is said:

Paul wrote to the church: I urge that requests, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgiving be made for everyone, for kings and all those in authority, that we may live peaceful and quiet lives, in all godliness and holiness. (1 Timothy 2.1-2)

As the Prayer Book is handed to the Rector designate the Acting Rector says:

Be faithful in leading this congregation in prayer and Divine Service

The Rector designate places the Prayer Book on the Prayer desk.

One churchwarden takes the Bible from the lectern and brings it to the Rector designate and holds it while the following is said:

Paul wrote to Timothy: Until I come devote yourself to the public reading of Scripture, to preaching and to teaching. (1 Timothy 4.13) All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting, and training in righteousness, so that the man of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work. (2 Timothy 3:16-17)

As the Bible is handed to the Rector designate the Acting Rector says:

Be faithful in reading the Scriptures and expounding them to this congregation and calling all to obedience to the Gospel.

The Rector designate places the Bible on the lectern.

Acting Rector:

Paul wrote to the church: Is not the cup of thanksgiving for which we give thanks a participation in the blood of Christ? And is not the bread we break a participation in the body of Christ? (1 Corinthians 10.16)

And;

Do you not know that all we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were therefore buried with him through baptism into death in order that, as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, we too might live a new life (Romans 6.3-4)

Be faithful in administration of the sacraments in this congregation.

Presenting the Minister to the congregation the Acting Rector says:

Church Wardens and parishioners of St Peter's Cremorne I present to you Reverend Andy Bleach, your Rector and Minister.

Turning to the Rector the Acting Rector says:

To you, my brother, I present the people committed to your charge.

The members of the parish respond

We welcome you among us as our pastor and Rector and commit ourselves with you to the service of God in this parish.

The congregation greets the Rector with applause.

OFFERTORY HYMN

Tune: Lyngham

Please stand

- 1 O for a thousand tongues to sing
my great Redeemer's praise,
the glories of our God and King,
the triumphs of his grace!
- 2 Jesus! the name that charms our fears,
that bids our sorrows cease;
such music in the sinner's ears,
is life, and health, and peace.
- 3 He breaks the power of cancelled sin,
he sets the prisoner free:
his blood can make the foulest clean,
his blood availed for me.
- 4 He speaks, and listening to his voice
new life the dead receive,
the mournful, broken hearts rejoice,
the humble poor believe.
- 5 Hear him, ye deaf; his praise, you dumb,
your loosened tongues employ;
you blind, behold your Saviour come;
and leap, ye lame, for joy!
- 6 My gracious Master and my God, assist me to proclaim and spread through all the earth abroad
the honours of your name.

THE INTERCESSIONS

Please sit or kneel

The Rector leads the Intercessions.

Rector

Most gracious God, we give thanks for those who laid the foundations of this parish in great faith, and for all who have ministered in this Parish over many years. We remember and give thanks for all who have gone before us and who by their faith have been an example to us.

God of grace: hear our prayer

Most gracious God, we pray for those who continue to build upon those foundations in this Parish. We give thanks for the mission and ministry that takes place here, and for all who offer their time, talents and finances to grow your kingdom.

Give us we pray, all that we need in order to proclaim your good news and bless us as we embark upon this next stage of our journey together.

God of grace: hear our prayer.

Acting Rector

Most gracious God, we pray for Andy, Tamera, Daniel, Jonty, Rosie and Harvey as they grieve one ending and as they celebrate a new beginning. We pray that you will give them all they need to minister among us, and for open and willing hearts to be led by your Holy Spirit.

God of grace: hear our prayer.

Rector

Most gracious God, we give you thanks for all that surrounds us and our many blessings here in Cremorne. Keep us mindful of the needs of our community, and those in the wider community who are in any need. We pray too for your world, especially for places of violence and fear. We pray for your peace, love, hope and joy to come upon all peoples.

God of grace: hear our prayer.

Accept our prayers through Jesus Christ our Lord.
As Christ has taught us, we pray:

Our Father in heaven,

hallowed be your name, your kingdom come,
your will be done, on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen

PREPARATION FOR HOLY COMMUNION

Celebrant

Hear the words of assurance for those who truly turn to Christ:

Jesus said: Come to me, all who labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.
Matthew 11.28

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life. John 3.16

We do not presume to come to your table, merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness,
but in your manifold and great mercies.

We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under your table.

But you are the same Lord whose nature is always to have mercy.

Grant us, therefore gracious Lord, so to eat the flesh of your dear Son Jesus Christ, and to drink his blood, that we may evermore dwell in him,
and he in us. Amen.

THE GREETING OF PEACE

We are the body of Christ.

His Spirit is with us.

The peace of the Lord be always with you.

And also with you.

All are invited to greet those immediately around them with the words, “Peace be with you” “And also with you”.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

The musical score is written on three staves in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The first staff begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). It features a Cantor part (labeled 'Cantor') and a People part (labeled 'People'). The lyrics are: 'The Lord be with you: And also with you. Lift up your hearts:'. The second staff continues the melody, with the People part (labeled 'People') and the Cantor part (labeled 'Cantor'). The lyrics are: 'We lift them to the Lord. Let us give thanks to the Lord our God:'. The third staff continues the melody, with the People part (labeled 'People'). The lyrics are: 'It is right to give our thanks and praise.'.

Cantor People Cantor

The Lord be with you: And also with you. Lift up your hearts:

4 People Cantor

We lift them to the Lord. Let us give thanks to the Lord our God:

6 People

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

All glory and honour be yours always and everywhere, mighty Creator, ever living God.

We give you thanks and praise for our Saviour Jesus Christ, who by the power of your Spirit was born of Mary and lived as one of us.

By his death on the cross and rising to new life, he offered the one true sacrifice for sin and obtained an eternal deliverance for his people.

11 mp

Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Therefore with angels and archangels and with all the company of heaven, we proclaim your great and glorious name, for ever praising you and singing:

Merciful God, we thank you for these gifts of your creation, this bread and wine, and we pray that by your Word and Holy Spirit, we who eat and drink them may be partakers of Christ's body and blood.

On the night when he was betrayed Jesus took bread; and when he had given you thanks he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, 'Take, eat. This is my body given for you. Do this in remembrance of me.'

After supper, he took the cup, and again giving you thanks he gave it to his disciples, saying, 'Drink from this, all of you. This is my blood of the new covenant shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.'

Therefore we do as our Saviour has commanded: proclaiming his offering of himself made once for all upon the cross, his mighty resurrection and glorious ascension, and looking for his coming again, we celebrate, with this bread and this cup, his one perfect and sufficient sacrifice for the sins of the whole world.

Cantor

Let us proclaim the mystery of faith,

Renew us by your Holy Spirit, unite us in the body of your Son, and bring us with all your people, into the joy of your eternal kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord, with whom, and in whom, in the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, we worship you, Father, in songs of never-ending praise.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

The celebrant breaks the bread.

We break this bread to share in the body of Christ. We who are many are one body, for we all share in the one bread.

AGNUS DEI

INVITATION

The gifts of God for the people of God.

Come let us take this holy sacrament of the body and blood of Christ in remembrance that he died for us, and feed on him in our hearts by faith with thanksgiving.

*As the sacrament is received the communicant responds. Amen.

All baptised Christians who love and serve the Lord Jesus are welcome to join in the sharing of Holy Communion. If you are not yet ready to receive Communion, we encourage you to come forward for a prayer of blessing. Please indicate your desire for a blessing by holding your hands behind your back.

RECESSIONAL HYMN

Tune: Diademata

- 1 Crown him with many crowns,
the Lamb upon his throne;
hark! how the heavenly anthem drowns
all music but its own:
awake, my soul, and sing
of him who died for me,
and hail him as your chosen king through all eternity.

- 2 Crown him the Son of God
before the worlds began:
and we who tread where he has trod
crown him the Son of Man, who every grief has known that wrings the human breast, and takes and bears them for his own,
that all in him may rest.

- 3 Crown him the Lord of love;
behold his hands and side,
those wounds yet visible above
in beauty glorified;
no angel there on high
can fully bear that sight, but downwards bends a burning eye at mysteries so bright.

- 4 Crown him the Lord of life,
who triumphed o'er the grave,
and rose victorious in the strife
for those he came to save:
his glories now we sing who died, and rose on high;
who died eternal life to bring,
and lives that death may die.

5 Crown him the Lord of peace, whose power a sceptre sways from pole to pole, that wars may cease absorbed in prayer and praise:
 his reign shall know no end,
 and round his pierced feet fair flowers of paradise extend their fragrance ever sweet.

6 Crown him the Lord of years,
 the Potentate of time,
 Creator of the rolling spheres,
 majestic and sublime:
 all hail, Redeemer, hail!
 for you have died for me;
 your praise shall never, never fail throughout eternity.

Matthew Bridges, 1800 - 1894

The Thirty-Nine Articles of Religion

The Wicked, and such as be void of a lively faith, although they do carnally and visibly press with their teeth (as Saint Augustine saith) the Sacrament of the Body and Blood of Christ, yet in no wise are they partakers of Christ: but rather, to their condemnation, do eat and drink the sign or Sacrament of so great a thing.
