

ANGLICAN PARISH ST PETER'S CREMORNE

LENT 2 8 MARCH 2020

WELCOME to St Peter's Church today. I am delighted that you can join us in worship.

If you are a newcomer or visiting, I especially look forward to meeting you and hope that you feel welcome. May I invite you to sign the visitors' book on the back table. If you have any questions, do not hesitate to ask one of the greeters at the door, or someone in the pew next to you.

A Hearing Loop is available in all of the pews on the left hand side of the church. Toilets are available in the Lower Hall and there is a mobility access toilet in the David Armstrong Room.

I hope you are able to stay and enjoy morning tea after the service.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN TiS 626 Lord of creation to you be all praise!

Tune Slane

The Celebrant greets the people with a welcome.

✕ Bless the Lord who forgives all our sins,
Whose mercy endures forever.

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

SENTENCE

God so love the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life. John 3:16

Let us pray.

Almighty God,
to whom all hearts are open,
all desires known,
and from whom no secrets are hidden:
cleanse the thoughts of our hearts
by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you,
and worthily magnify your holy name,
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The musical score is written in 4/4 time with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). It begins with a tempo marking of 'Andante' and a dynamic marking of '2'. The score is divided into two systems. The first system contains two staves: the first staff is for the Cantor and the second for the People. The Cantor's part starts with a whole note 'Ky - ri - e' followed by a half note 'e - lei - son'. The People's part starts with a half note 'Ky - ri - e' followed by a half note 'e - lei - son'. The second system also contains two staves. The first staff is for the Cantor and the second for the People. The Cantor's part starts with a quarter note 'Chris - te', an eighth note 'e - le - i - son', and a quarter note 'Chris - te e - le - i - son'. The People's part starts with a quarter note 'Ky - rie e - lei - son' and a quarter note 'Ky - rie e - lei - son'. The score ends with a double bar line.

THE CONFESSION

Senior Server

Compassion and forgiveness belong to the Lord our God, though we have rebelled and wandered far off.

Silence may be kept.

Let us then ask for mercy, confessing our sins in penitence and faith.

Merciful God,
our maker and our judge,
we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed,
and in what we have failed to do:
we have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves;
we repent, and are sorry for all our sins.
Father, forgive us. Strengthen us to love and obey you in newness of life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE ABSOLUTION

Celebrant

Almighty God, who has promised forgiveness to all who turn to him in faith:

✠ pardon you and set you free from all your sins, strengthen you in all goodness and keep you in eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

COLLECT OF THE SEASON

Almighty and everlasting God, you hate nothing that you have made, and you forgive the sins of all who are penitent: create and make in us new and contrite hearts, that we, worthily lamenting our sins and acknowledging our wretchedness, may obtain of you, the God of all mercy, perfect remission and forgiveness; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

COLLECT OF THE DAY

God of mercy, you are full of tenderness and compassion, slow to anger, rich in mercy, and always ready forgive: grant us grace to renounce all evil and to cling to Christ, that in every way we may prove to be your loving children; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE MINISTRY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

A reading from the book of Genesis 12:1-4a

The LORD had said to Abram, 'Go from your country, your people and your father's household to the land I will show you. ²'I will make you into a great nation, and I will bless you; will make your name great, and you will be a blessing. ³I will bless those who bless you, and whoever curses you I will curse; and all peoples on earth will be blessed through you.' ⁴So Abram went, as the LORD had told him; and Lot went with him. Abram was seventy-five years old when he set out from Harran.

SECOND READING

A reading from Paul's letter to the Romans 4:1-5, 13-17

What then shall we say that Abraham, our forefather according to the flesh, discovered in this matter? ²If, in fact, Abraham was justified by works, he had something to boast about – but not before God. ³What does Scripture say? 'Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness.' Now to the one who works, wages are not credited as a gift but as an obligation. ⁵However, to the one who does not work but trusts God who justifies the ungodly, their faith is credited as righteousness.

¹³ It was not through the law that Abraham and his offspring received the promise that he would be heir of the world, but through the righteousness that comes by faith. ¹⁴ For if those who depend on the law are heirs, faith means nothing and the promise is worthless, ¹⁵ because the law brings wrath. And where there is no law there is no transgression. ¹⁶ Therefore, the promise comes by faith, so that it may be by grace and may be guaranteed to all Abraham's offspring – not only to those who are of the law but also to those who have the faith of Abraham. He is the father of us all. ¹⁷ As it is written: 'I have made you a father of many nations.' He is our father in the sight of God, in whom he believed – the God who gives life to the dead and calls into being things that were not.

Hear the Word of the Lord, thanks be to God.

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John 3:1-17

Sung ✕ Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

¹ Now there was a Pharisee, a man named Nicodemus who was a member of the Jewish ruling council. ² He came to Jesus at night and said, 'Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher who has come from God. For no one could perform the signs you are doing if God were not with him.' ³ Jesus replied, 'Very truly I tell you, no one can see the kingdom of God unless they are born again.' ⁴ 'How can someone be born when they are old?' Nicodemus asked. 'Surely they cannot enter a second time into their mother's womb to be born!' ⁵ Jesus answered, 'Very truly I tell you, no one can enter the kingdom of God unless they are born of water and the Spirit. ⁶ Flesh gives birth to flesh, but the Spirit gives birth to spirit. ⁷ You should not be surprised at my saying, "You must be born again." ⁸ The wind blows wherever it pleases. You hear its sound, but you cannot tell where it comes from or where it is going. So it is with everyone born of the Spirit.' ⁹ 'How can this be?' Nicodemus asked. ¹⁰ 'You are Israel's teacher,' said Jesus, 'and do you not understand these things? ¹¹ Very truly I tell you, we speak of what we know, and we testify to what we have seen, but still you people do not accept our testimony. ¹² I have spoken to you of earthly things and you do not believe; how then will you believe if I speak of heavenly things? ¹³ No one has ever gone into heaven except the one who came from heaven – the Son of Man. ¹⁴ Just as Moses lifted up the snake in the wilderness, so the Son of Man must be lifted up, ¹⁵ that everyone who believes may have eternal life in him.' ¹⁶ For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life. ¹⁷ For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through him.

This is the Gospel of the Lord. Sung Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

THE NICENE CREED

Senior Server

Let us together affirm the faith of the Church:

All stand

We believe in one God, the Father,
the almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,

the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one being with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary and became truly human.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;

he ascended into heaven

and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life

who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead,

✠and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Senior Server

Let us pray for the world and for the Church.

All sit/kneel

Periods of silence may be briefly kept for personal prayer.

*Each petition ends with this response: Lord in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Accept our prayers through Jesus Christ our Lord who taught us, to pray,

Our Father in heaven,

hallowed be your name, your kingdom come,
your will be done, on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen

Celebrant

All glory and honour be yours always and everywhere, mighty Creator, everliving God.

We give you thanks and praise for your Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ, who by the power of your Spirit was born of Mary and lived as one of us.

He was tempted in every way as we are, yet he did not sin.

By his death on the cross and rising to new life, he offered the one true sacrifice for sin and obtained an eternal deliverance for his people.

By his grace we are able to triumph over every evil, and to walk in the way of his love.

Therefore with angels and archangels and with all the company of heaven, we proclaim your great and glorious name, for ever praising you and saying/singing:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

✕ Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san-na in the high-est, Ho-san-na in the high - est

Merciful God, we thank you for these gifts of your creation, this bread and wine, and we pray that by your Word and Holy Spirit, we who eat and drink them may be partakers of Christ's body and blood.

On the night when he was betrayed Jesus took bread; and when he had given you thanks he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, 'Take, eat. This is my body given for you. Do this in remembrance of me.'

After supper, he took the cup, and again giving you thanks he gave it to his disciples, saying, 'Drink from this, all of you. This is my blood of the new covenant shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.'

Therefore we do as our Saviour has commanded: proclaiming his offering of himself made once for all upon the cross, his mighty resurrection and glorious ascension, and looking for his coming again, we celebrate, with this bread and this cup, his one perfect and sufficient sacrifice for the sins of the whole world.

The mini cake and produce stall last Sunday raised $79.10. All money raised will go to Taldumande Youth Services. Thank you to everyone who baked, preserved and bought.

ABM LENT APPEAL

St Peter's has been one of the continuing Sydney parishes in support the Official Mission Arm of the Anglican Church of Australia. This year's Appeal has the support of Parish Council, and an envelope will be inserted to each pewsheet for the six weeks of Lent for those who might feel this meets one of the traditional three pillars of Lent – prayer, fasting and almsgiving.

COLLECTING SPOONS AND FORKS

Thank you to all who donated spoons and forks for a homeless refuge for men - De Porres House in Darlinghurst. One of the key philosophies of the shelter is to offer the homeless the greatest respect and empathy possible. This means that metal cutlery, glassware and ceramic plates are always used rather than plastic utensils. Your donations were very much appreciated - Bruce.

RWANDAN COFFEE FOR SALE

Supplies of Rwandan coffee, both beans and ground, are available in the David Armstrong room. $9.00 for a 200gm bag. All proceeds are directed to projects in Rwanda to rebuild the lives of genocide survivors. Assistance in food production, income earning capacity and health are top priorities.

MESSIAH

Handel's Messiah shocked the authorities, disrupted traffic, enthralled its audiences and brought a king to his feet. Composed in just 24 days, it was an instant hit and for almost three centuries has remained one of the world's favourite choral works. Sydney Chamber Choir performs this glorious work at City Recital Hall on Saturday March 14 at 6pm featuring Sam Allchurch (conductor), Amy Moore (soprano), Stephanie Dillon (mezzo soprano), Andrew Goodwin (tenor), Andrew O'Connor (bass) and The Muffat Collective. RICHARD JOHNSON LECTURE – CENTRE FOR PUBLIC CHRISTIANITY

The annual Richard Johnson lecture seeks to highlight Christianity's relevance to society and positively contribute to public discourse on key aspects of civil life. This year's lecture will be given by Dr Sarah Irving-Stonebraker: "Free to be me? The forgotten story of religious liberty" on Thursday 19 March at 7pm. The venue is Scots Church Sydney, 44 Margaret St, Sydney. Tickets cost $25 for adults and $17 for concession and are available from www.richardjohnson.com.au.

WHAT DOES A PARISH COUNCILLOR DO?

General right and power

1. In the control of the funds and property of the parish the parish council has the right and power –
 - to determine matters of policy
 - to approve budgets (including the annual budget prepared by the wardens for submission to the annual general meeting of parishioners)
 - to authorise payments
2. The parish council is to exercise this right and power in a manner which does not prevent the proper exercise of any function under these rules in respect of the funds and property of the parish.

Functions of the parish council

The functions of the parish council (without imposing on its members any legal liability) are –

- To fix the stipend, allowances and benefits of the minister
- With the consent of the minister, to fix the stipend or salary and the allowances and benefits of any assistant minister, lay minister, student minister or other lay worker
- To confer with the minister in the initiation, conduct and development of church or parish work including such matters as are vital to the spiritual welfare of the church or parish and to make recommendations to the minister on ministry within the parish
- To consider (on its own motion or on reference by a general meeting of parishioners, the minister or the Archbishop or in accordance with the provisions of any Act or Ordinance) any measure or project affecting or likely to affect the interest of the parish generally and to take proper action thereon in accordance with the functions conferred on it by these rules or any Ordinance or Act
- To cause minutes to be kept of its proceedings
- To direct the expenditure or investment policy of any surplus funds including the allocation of general funds of the church or parish (not being the subject of any trust) for the general or any specific work of the Anglican Church of Australia in the Diocese of Sydney
- To make donations for patriotic or charitable purposes or for the purposes of a Christian missionary society, whether local or foreign, Anglican or non-Anglican

Committees of a parish council

A parish council may, by resolution

- Establish a committee and delegate to that committee all or any of the parish council's functions, rights and powers

Secretary

A parish council may appoint one of its members to be its secretary for the time being and may remove any such person from the office.
